

Barn Owl ©Margaret Holland

Be there for Barn Owls

Would you like to do your bit for one of Northern Ireland's most iconic, and elusive, species? Then come along to one of Ulster Wildlife's Barn Owl workshops in July. We will cover barn owl identification, background on the Be There for Barn Owls project and hope to sign you up for the survey this summer.

The workshop is open to everybody, free to attend and refreshments will be provided.

These are the dates and locations:-

- 16th July 2014, Delamont Country Park, Killyleagh
- 17th July 2014, Derrygonnelly Field Centre, Derrygonnelly
- 22nd July 2014, An Creagán Visitor Centre, Omagh
- 24th July 2014, The Vale Centre, Greysteel

The workshops are all at 19:30-21:30

If you are interested in attending, please contact Catherine Fegan, 028 448 33977 or bamowls@ulsterwildlife.org

www.ulsterwildlife.org

Ulster Wildlife

part of
The Wildlife Trusts